FROM THE PASTOR

DOING THE BASICS WELL

Here are the basic behaviors and attitudes we see in the weeks ahead in Year B of our scripture readings.

1. Toward God we are to put God first and give God credit for this beautiful creation.
2. Toward ourselves we need to take a pure day off once a week and not punish ourselves by being jealous of others.
3. Towards others we are to respect their maturity, property, bodies and right to the truth.
4. Church is to be about prayer and service and not have it be just a place of business. Jesus was killed because he confronted the temple leaders for being only about the money.
5. We are to prefer the light to the darkness, hope over cynicism.
6. Living self-sacrifice for a purpose is the path of Jesus Christ.

This is a quick list for our examination of conscience. We don't need to be perfect – no one is. This will help us to hear God's call to get better with his help so that we can be a more effective vessel of God's love for the world.

A PERSONAL UPDATE

I will be taking a health leave in April and May. I have not been getting enough rest time in between assignments and the Archdiocese wishes for me to do so. I will be back for the Spaghetti Dinner on April 14 as well as on May 5 for First Communions, but will otherwise be on retreat or vacation. Fr. Duy will assist Frs. Chakrit and Carlos at the Southern Parishes and Fr. Michael Barrett will assist at the Northern Parishes.

COLORECTAL CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

The month of March is Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month. The Medical College of Wisconsin Cancer Center is inviting our community to support colorectal cancer awareness by wearing the color blue.

Colorectal Cancer (CRC) disproportionately affects African Americans, Native Americans, and other ethnic groups. Individuals from these communities are more likely to develop CRC at younger ages, be diagnosed further along in their illness, and are more likely to die of the disease.

Colon cancer is the third most commonly diagnosed cancer and second leading cause of cancer-related deaths in the United States, but sadly, not enough people are aware of how prevalent and devastating it can be. Let's raise awareness together.

You can reduce your risk for CRC by living a healthy lifestyle, understanding health history, and getting screened. CRC screening saves lives, by detecting the disease in the early, most treatable stages.

To learn about your risk factors, why you should get tested and how to get tested please contact Debra Nevels at the Medical College of Wisconsin at dnevels@mcw.edu or (414) 955-2364.

Bishop Joseph Perry was ordained a priest for service in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee on May 24, 1975, by Archbishop William Edward Cousins. Upon ordination, he was assigned as associate pastor of St. Nicholas Parish in Glendale, a post he held until he was assigned to the Tribunal Department of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee in December 1976, where he served as advocate in matrimonial cases and instructor of special cases. In August 1979 he was assigned to the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC, for graduate studies in canon law, receiving the licentiate degree in canon law in 1981. Returning to Milwaukee, he resumed service in the Tribunal for Milwaukee as judge in special cases and in the appeals section for the Dioceses of Oshkosh, Superior, Madison, and LaCrosse. He was also director of the Conciliation/Arbitration services of the Archdiocese. He taught canon law as adjunct professor at Sacred Heart Seminary in Milan, Colorado and at Marquette University Law School.

He served as chaplain of the St. Thomas More Lawyers Society of Wisconsin, an association of lawyers and judges. In June 1992, after completing his term of service in the Tribunal, he was assigned pastor of All Saints Parish, Milwaukee, while serving as adjunct professor of canon law at St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein, Illinois, where he teaches to this day. He continues to serve as judge ad causam on the Metropolitan Tribunal of Chicago.

On April 28, 1998, Father Joseph Perry was informed by the Vatican nuncio to the United States that he was appointed auxiliary bishop to Cardinal Francis George, OMI, Archbishop of Chicago. His consecration as a bishop took place on June 29, 1998. Bishop Perry is spiritual adviser to the board for the World Apostolate of Fatima (WAF-USA) and currently chairs the USCCB Ad Hoc Committee Against Racism. Since 2010, Bishop Perry is also postulator for the cause of declared sainthood of Father Augustus Tolton (1854-1897) underway at the Vatican.
